TO THE

READER

THis Sale Consists of the Libraries of two Learned Men deceased; of whom much might be said as to their Skill and Knowledge of the best Books, however observing that its not the great Names, or mighty Vogue that the Proprietors have had in the World, but the scarcity and usefulness of the Books that are Exposed, that do really recommend them to the Gentlemen that Buy, I leave all Persons to Judge as they please, to censure or approve as they think fit, not doubting but all that are unprejudiced will agree with me in this modest Character of the ensuing Catalogue, viz. That in most parts of it there are many choice and considerable Books in Divinity, History, Philology, Physick, &c. in Greek and Latin, accompanied with a large Collection of English Books in all Volumes.

This Auction will begin on Monday the 19th. day of October, 1685. at Mr. Bridges Coffee-house in Popes Alley, over against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, from the hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, from Two to Six in the Afternoon, and there continue dayly till all the Books are sold.

Conditions of SALE.

1. THAT he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any difference ariseth, the same Book or Books to be Exposed again to Sale.
2. That the Books in this Catalogue (not otherwise expressed) are for ought we know perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the buyer shall have his choice of leaving or taking them.
3. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be paid by the buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the place of Sale; where upon payment thereof the Book or Books so bought shall be ready to be delivered within the Month aforesaid.
4. That these Books are to be seen for one whole week before the Auction begins, from Nine till Twelve in the Morning, and from Two till Six in the Afternoon, by any Gentlemen that please to repair to the above-mentioned place.
5. That every Person not known to some of the company, do give in his Name and place of Abode (or earnest in part of the books by him bought, if required,) to the end, that the Auction may be managed with honesty and justice to all, so as to prevent the inconveniences that have hitherto ensued by the forgetfulness of some, and design of others, in leaving several parcels of Books on the hands of the Undertakers, to their prejudice, and to the abuse of others that they have out of vanity or humour outbid.
